Local Grayson County Democratic Candidates

“The Grayson County Democratic Party is excited to introduce our local candidates,” said Glenn Melancon, Chair of the Grayson Democratic Party. “Americans from all walks of life want solutions. Democratic candidates are committed to being part of the solution.”

The Grayson County Democratic candidates will gather on the steps of the Grayson County Courthouse in Sherman on Tuesday, December 19 at noon. The public and the press are invited to meet them.

Lander Bethel for US Congress, TX 4th
Catherine Krantz for US Congress, TX 4th
Valerie Hefner, Texas House District 62
Karen Hughes Spencer for County Clerk
Marilyn S. Livingston for County Commissioner Pct.2
Terry Templeton for County Commissioner Pct.4
Sylvia Faith Mitchell for Justice of the Peace Pct.2
Laura Bass for Justice of the Peace Pct.3

“Both locally and state-wide, a record number of democratic candidates are offering Texas voters a real choice. We don’t have to keep following the same failed agenda of throwing money at millionaires and billionaires.” Melancon said, “It’s not going to trickle down.”

The Democratic candidates have been emboldened and encouraged as voters from Virginia to Alabama reject the policies that tear down Social Security, Medicare, CHIP and SNAP. Voters have embraced real solutions for our public schools, roads and other vital government services.

“Politics should be about public service,” Melancon said. “Our candidates are average Texans who want to serve. They’re not politicians. They want to be part of the solution. They want to serve you.”
